What's up John... as of this morning, we haven't received the second one...

We did receive one that was 300, but I need you to confirm who is the payer to make sure it is from you, and not from some customer.

Antonio, I am sending a total of 700

It was 300 and about 346, if I'm not mistaken...

Let me know. You should have already received the first one, the second one maybe yesterday or today...

Take care

Hi John,

How are you doing? Can you confirm if last week you made any transfers or if you have any transfers pending?
